Excerpts from the Holy Father's Reflection on the Nativity and the Tree, December 2018:

The Tree and the Nativity Scene are two signs that never cease to appeal to us; they tell us about Christmas and help us to contemplate the mystery of God-made-man to be close to each one of us. The Christmas tree with its lights reminds us that Jesus is the Light of the world, the Light of the soul that drives away the darkness of enmities and makes room for forgiveness. The spruce that this year is placed in Piazza San Pietro, coming from the Cansiglio forest, suggests further reflection. With its height of over twenty meters, it symbolizes God Who, with the birth of His Son Jesus, lowered himself down to man, to raise man to Himself, and lift man from the fogs of selfishness and sin. The Son of God assumes the human condition to draw that human condition to Himself and to enable it participate in His divine and incorruptible nature.

The Nativity scene, located in the centre of the Square, is made with sand from Jesola, originally from the Dolomites. The sand, a poor material, recalls the simplicity, the smallness, and also the fragility with which God revealed Himself with the birth of Jesus, in precarious circumstances, in Bethlehem. It may seem that this smallness contradicts divinity, so much so that some, from the very beginning, considered it only as an appearance, a façade. But no, because smallness is freedom. Those who are small, in the evangelical sense, are not only light, but are also free from any desire to appear grsty, and free from any claim to success - like children who express themselves and move spontaneously. We are all called to be free before God, to have the freedom of a child before his father. The Child Jesus, Son of God and our Saviour, whom we place in the manger, is Holy in poverty, in smallness, in simplicity and in humility.

The Nativity and the Tree, enchanting symbols of Christmas, can bring to families and communities a reflection of the Light and tenderness of God, and help everyone to live the Feast of the Birth of Jesus. Contemplating the Child God, Who emanates Light in the humility of the Nativity scene, we can also become witnesses of humility, tenderness and goodness.

THE ANGELUS

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary
R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary....
V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord
R. Be it done unto me according to thy word. Hail Mary....
V. And the Word was made Flesh (Genuflect)
R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary
V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us Pray : Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection.

Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.
